Information letter no. 2 – Competition categories

The Crazy World Cup 2022 is an event for Boogie Woogie. It combines competition and socialdance. The official WRRC categories are BW Main Class, BW Juniors, BW Seniors and BW Rising Star. Next to these categories we will offer two categories for dancers without a competition license, BW Mix & Match and Swing Showcase.

During the day there will be the prelium rounds, quarter- and semifinals for the WRRC categories. In the evening program there will be the finals for the WRRC categories and also the BW Mix & Match and the Swing Showcase. During the breaks of the evening program there will be socialdance for everyone, same as after the end of the competition.

What is Mix & Match and Swing Showcase?

Mix & Match: This is a social dance competition, open to everyone. Leaders and followers will be randomly drawn to dance together to several songs of varying styles and tempos but will be judged as individuals in the preliminary rounds. Dancers selected to dance in the finals will be randomly assigned a partner again but will be judged as a couple as they dance in a spotlight format.

Swing showcase: This division is for solo, duo, trio and groups (4 people and more), performing a choreographed swing routine (Lindy Hop, Jazz, Shag, Balboa, Boogie-Woogie ect.). Judges will be looking for creativity, difficulties, musicality and showmanship. Aerials & dips are allowed. Choreo must go between 2 and 3 minutes.

Who can join?

Everybody can join these categories. You don't need to have a competition license or a certain level or experience.

Who will judge?

There will be very competent and experienced swing dancers of the international scene: Bärbl Kaufer (GER), Melanie Stocker (SUI), Jesper Boberg (SWE), and more.
